April 29, 1918.

Captain Edward McCauley, Jr.,
Assistant Director of Naval Intelligence,
Navy Department.

My dear Captain:

Referring to the memorandum sent you sometime ago regarding the proposal to establish a special patrol on the Mexican boundary, I am transmitting herewith a copy of a further memorandum, prepared as a somewhat concrete basis for the discussion which is to occur at the meeting in the Department of Justice at 4:30 P.M. today. Supervising Inspector Berkshire of El Paso is in Washington and will attend the meeting.

Yours very truly,
